

Official Call
Legislative District Convention
Of the 99th House District
Of the Republican Party of Virginia
at the A.T. Johnson Human Services Building, in Montross, Va. 22520

As Chairman of the 99th Legislative District Committee of the Republican Party of Virginia, and pursuant to the Plan of Organization and as directed by the Committee, I, R. Allen Webb, do hereby issue this call for a Legislative District Convention to be held at the A.T. Johnson Human Services Building, 18849 Kings Highway (Rt. 3), Montross, Va. 22520 starting at 10:30 AM, local time on May 16, 2009, for the purposes of nominating a Republican candidate to serve as a member of the House of Delegates representing the 99th Legislative District of Virginia to be voted for in the election on November 3, 2009, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention. Registration shall begin at 9:30 AM.

Qualifications for Participation

All legal and qualified voters of the 99th House District under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, regardless of race, religion, national origin or sex, who are in accord with the principles of the Republican Party, and who, if requested, express in open meeting either orally or in writing as may be required, their intent to support all of its nominees for public office in the ensuing election, may participate as members of the Republican Party of Virginia in its mass meetings, party canvasses, conventions or primaries encompassing their respective election districts.

Composition of Convention

The Convention shall be composed of delegates and alternate delegates of the respective units [see Delegate Voting Strengths] they represent. Representation shall be based on a percentage of the total number of Republican votes cast in each county and city in the last gubernatorial and presidential election combined. Each unit is allowed one (1) Delegate Vote for each two-hundred, fifty (250) Republican votes cast or major portion thereof. Each unit shall be entitled to at least one (1) Delegate Vote. The delegates and alternates shall be elected in each County's Mass Meeting, Canvass or Convention called for this purpose in conformity with the Plan of Organization of the Republican Party of Virginia by each unit committee.

Certification of Delegates

The delegates present in a given delegation shall designate which alternate delegates shall vote in the place of an absent delegate except where the electing body electing the delegates had determined another method of alternate delegate selection. The said delegates and alternate delegates to the Convention so elected shall be certified in writing with their respective names and addresses including zip codes over the signatures of the permanent chairman and permanent secretary of the Unit Mass Meeting, Canvass or Convention.

All certifications must be delivered not later than 7 days prior to the convening of the Legislative District Convention (May 9, 2009). Postmarks will not govern. After the filing deadline of the certifications, no change may be made except a certified alternate delegate may be made a delegate. A copy of the published call of the County's Mass Meeting, Canvass or Convention called for the purpose of selecting delegates and alternate delegates to said convention must accompany the certification with the date of publication included. Certification should be mailed or delivered as follows:

Original: Allen Webb, Chairman--99th Legislative District Committee
5198 Waterfront Lane
King George, Va. 22485

Second Copy: Mrs. Mary Encinger, Secretary-- 99th Legislative District Committee
28 Summer Drive
Montross, Va. 22520

Third Copy: Unit's records

Delegates or alternate delegates are not certified until their names, addresses and phone numbers have been provided on the certification.

Registration Fee

There will be no registration fee to participate in this convention. However, a $10.00 voluntary contribution is requested.
